

Contents

Introduction:	xvi
The Cross at the Falls. May 24, 1607
1. The Reasons for Jamestown. 1300-1607	1
Early European exploration of North America; the Doctrine of Discovery; gathering momentum for colonization; the journey begins
2. The Conquest of Tsenacomoco. 1607-1644	14
Beginning the invasion; a settlement at the falls; death and resurrection in Jamestown; the English-Powhatan War; the establishment of Henrico; an uneasy peace; the university at Henrico
3. The Mystery of Pocahontas. 1597-1617	35
The myth of the rescue; the daughter of Powhatan; betrayal at Patawomeck; imprisonment, baptism, and marriage; the voyage to England; one who kindles
4. An Economy of Servants and Slaves. 1607-1780	58
The tobacco boom and bond servitude; class warfare and Bacon's Rebellion; enslaving Africans in Virginia; the invention of the white race; Africans on the upper James

5. The Perfection of Racialized Slavery. 1720-1861	76
Poor whites and enslaved blacks; religious revival and slavery; slavery and revolution; revolution and rebellion; the colonization movement; legislative debate over slavery; the failed white opposition
6. Capital City of Slavery. 1780-1861	101
Richmond's culture of slavery; voyage of the Creole; the downriver slave trade; Lumpkin's slave jail; a visit to Richmond's slave market; Henry "Box" Brown; the fruits of denial
7. Developing Structures of Segregation. 1865-1954	125
The trauma of white Virginia; race and Reconstruction; managing segregation
8. Massive Resistance and Resegregation. 1955-1972	151
Urban renewal; Massive Resistance; state policies for jurisdictional segregation; the legacy of 1971
9. A Metropolitan City without Legalized Segregation. 1970-2010	175
The black majority; inherited and legislated burdens; disinvestment and sprawl; imprisoned in the center; resegregation of the schools
Epilogue: The Healing of Metropolitan Richmond	206
The Law and the prophets; the common wealth	