Bawitdaba hoping to open by football season

If you've been up 27th Street recently, you may have noticed the transformation of the storefront at 27th and Marshall Streets across from WPA Bakery.

Lee Gregory and the brothers Scott and Mark Lewis (aka "Lew" and "Meezy"), the co-owner of The Roosevelt and two trusted coworkers, aim to have Bawitdaba open in time for football season.

Bawitdaba will be a Clemson-themed sports bar with great food. Mark describes the menu as "simple, American comfort food".

"It's going to kick ass," adds Gregory.
